Long Bio

Lona Bartlett is a professional storyteller, puppeteer and educator who has delighted audiences throughout the U.S. and internationally for over 30 years. Degrees in education and a small town upbringing in the Catskill Mountains provide inspiration for a long list of programs and presentations. No matter the genre, whether folktales, fairytales, puppets, or personal stories, Lona loves bringing excitement and insight to audiences at schools, libraries, conferences, festivals, corporate gatherings and special events.

Testimonials

"Lona Bartlett engages audiences both large and small with a wide range of stories that entertain and delight. She is a storyteller and puppeteer and moves easily between adult and youth audiences evoking in both the many emotions of the human drama—laughter, awe, and wonder."

SHERRY LOVETT / PAST PRESIDENT NCSG, CHAIRPERSON TOE RIVER STORYTELLING FESTIVAL

"Lona Bartlett is the best story teller for vivid descriptions and creativity that will keep any audience interested and attentive. She has the talent to make literature of any type dynamic."

DR. PERRY SPANN, FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT | THE AMERICAN LITERARY SOCIETY FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

"Her voice is a jumping off place as she catches you unawares when she switches to the voice of one of her characters—she will make you love those characters and care about what happens."
